

Visitor Code of Conduct

The Rochester Art Center is committed to creating a safe, accessible, and inclusive space for all of its visitors, staff, and volunteers. To maintain this safe space and promote respect for everyone at the Art Center, we insist that all visitors to the museum refrain from the following:

- Verbal or physical abuse or harassment of museum visitors, staff, or volunteers
- Covert and overt hate speech or promotion of current and historical hate groups
- Disrespect of a visitor, staff member, or volunteer's identity
- Repeated disruption or intimidation of museum visitors, staff, or volunteers
- Attempted vandalism or theft
- The intentional obstruction of public accessways or prevention of museum staff duties
- Refusal to follow visitor policies or directions of museum staff

If this behavior is observed by, or reported to, Art Center staff, the visitor will be subject to direction including but not limited to being asked to leave or trespassed from the property. Final decision of discipline is at the discretion of Rochester Art Center staff.
